

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The below is a list of agenda items where board members declare a conflict of interest. Where these were identified, the Chair asked that the individuals not participate in the decision-making on that agenda item. All board members were invited to participate in discussions on all agenda items.

Decision	Date	Conflict Registered
July 2017		No conflict of interest identified or registered.
September 2017		No conflict of interest identified or registered.
October 2017		No conflict of interest identified or registered.
Approval of support for improving Early Years pedagogy	03/11/2017	To note: Jane Pepper declared an interest on this item at lead for the Scarborough Teaching Alliance.
Approval of support for teacher recruitment and retention	03/11/2017	To note: Paul Brennan declared an interest on this item as an employee of North Yorkshire County Council (NYCC).
Approval of Maths Hub proposal	01/12/2017	To note: Jane Pepper declared an interest on this item at lead for the Scarborough Teaching Alliance.
Approval of Talent Mgmt proposal	05/01/2018	To note: Paul Brennan declared an interest on this item as an employee of NYCC.
Approval of Academic Resilience proposal	02/02/2018	To note: Stuart Carlton declared an interest on this item as an employee of NYCC
March 2018		No conflict of interest identified or registered.
May 2018		No conflict of interest identified or registered.
Approval of Teach First proposal to bring graduate trainee teachers to the North Yorkshire Coast	08/06/2018	To note: Andy Galbraith and David Read declared an interest as potential recipients of funding through this initiative.
Funding for secondary literacy project	06/07/2018	David Read declared an interest at CEO of Scalby Learning Trust and potential recipient of funding.
Funding for expansion of teaching school into secondary school support	07/09/2018	David Read declared an interest at CEO of Scalby Learning Trust and potential recipient of funding.
Funding for Behaviour project	09/11/2018	To note: David Read and Martin Kelly declared an interest as potential recipients of funding.
Funding for Behaviour project	07/12/2018	To note: David Read, Martin Kelly and Stuart Carlton declared an interest as potential recipients of funding.
Funding for recruitment and retention project	25/01/2019	To note: Stuart Carlton and Martin Kelly declared an interest as employees of NYCC and potential recipients of funding
January 2019		No conflict of interest identified or registered.
March 2019		No conflict of interest identified or registered.

May 2019	No conflict of interest identified or registered.
July 2019	No conflict of interest identified or registered.
October 2019	No conflict of interest identified or registered.